Lone Pine Trail

Narrative

The Lone Pine Trail starts from a junction with the Cowiche Canyon Trail and climbs up the wall of the Canyon in a series of gentle grade switchbacks. The views of Cowiche Creek and the Canyon keep improving as the trail approaches the top of the Canyon rim. There is even a resting bench with an outstanding view at the intersection with the Radio Flyer Loop Trail. The trail continues south to another intersection the Radio Flyer Loop Trail.

Trail length (and terrain)

.89 miles of moderate uphill grade.

Difficulty: Moderate

Trail uses

Hiking, biking, skiing, snowshoeing, and horseback riding
