

User trail segment information

SMR Cowiche Mountain Trail East

Narrative

The east leg of the trail descends north from the summit along another broad ridge, then crosses a ravine to a junction with the Bench Loop Trail, continues north across the bench lands, descends a ravine, and curves west, traversing the hillside downward to meeting the east end of the Ditch Bank Connector Trail. The route is marked by a series of large posts and rock pile trail markers. The scenic vistas are hard to beat.

Trail length (and terrain)

2.14 miles of steady and sometimes steep uphill grade

Difficulty

This is a moderate + hike; especially if the summit is the final destination.

Trail uses

Hiking, skiing, and horseback
